

So Much to Be Thankful For

As we enter this season of gratitude, we are reminded of just how much we have to be thankful for. We're grateful for God's faithful provision for Eagle Wings, for the volunteers and supporters who come alongside us, and for our partnership with Faith Heritage School. Most of all, we're thankful for the opportunity to partner with families, support our students, and help make Christ-centered education possible. What a privilege it is to be part of what God is doing in the lives of these students and families!

Hay Paw — A Story of Faith & Gratitude

Born in Burma, Hay Paw fled civil war as a young child and spent 12 years living in Noh Poe Refugee Camp in Thailand before coming to the United States. After arriving without knowing English, she came to know Jesus personally through the Myanmar Baptist Church.

Today, Hay Paw is especially grateful that her children have the opportunity to attend Faith Heritage School through Eagle Wings. She values knowing they are surrounded by teachers who love Jesus and that God's Word is woven throughout their education. Her story is a beautiful reminder of God's faithfulness and why partnering with families to make Christ-centered education accessible matters so deeply.

Your Support at Work

This year, Eagle Wings is walking alongside 28 students and their families, with 24 receiving financial assistance. Each month, approximately $20,000 is invested in tuition assistance and the support that surrounds our students throughout the school year. Through the generosity of individuals, churches, foundations, businesses, and community partners, financial barriers are being removed, and students are being given the opportunity to learn and grow in a Christ-centered environment.
